About Us.

Introduction

OV Impex was established in 2022 with the vision of building a strong presence in the global import and export industry. Based in Maharashtra, our rural location gives us a unique edge direct access to farmers and grassroots producers, allowing us to offer authentic, high-quality products at competitive prices. We provide a reliable and secure platform to support the smooth exchange of goods across both domestic and international markets. At OV Impex, we are committed to delivering genuine value to exporters and importers who are dedicated to the global trade of agricultural, spice and food products.

Our approach is rooted in fairness and transparency. We work closely with producers, farmers, wholesalers and global buyers to foster sustainable partnerships and expand our international footprint. Our ultimate goal is to bridge the gap between buyers and sellers in overseas markets, ensuring a seamless trade experience. With the support of experienced consultants, we prioritize quality assurance, customer satisfaction and long-term trust building relationships with every trade.

Mission & Vision.

MISSION

Our mission is to connect global businesses with the Indian market by delivering exceptional solutions, deep local insights and forward-thinking strategies. We are committed to empowering our clients to navigate challenges, seize opportunities and drive sustainable growth within India's dynamic and diverse economy.

VISION

To be the most trusted partner for India market entry, enabling global businesses to explore new opportunities in India and fostering sustainable growth through responsible and successful business practices.

The Organization.

VIVEK KATKAR

MANAGING DIRECTOR

Mr. Vivek Katkar is the Managing Director and founder of OV Impex, a company focused on connecting global buyers with trusted Indian manufacturers. With a strong engineering background, he began his career in the oil and gas industry, spending 14 years with a Singapore based firm serving international clients.

His work took him aboard offshore construction vessels worldwide, where he worked with renowned companies in the energy sector. These global assignments provided valuable exposure to international trade and logistics. During his travels, Mr. Katkar recognized India's potential as a reliable sourcing hub. Inspired by this, he founded OV Impex in 2022 with the mission of simplifying international trade with India.

At OV Impex, he combines global experience, technical expertise and deep knowledge of Indian markets to deliver transparent and efficient import solutions.

Mr. Shirang Landge is the Product Manager at OV Impex, bringing over 10 years of experience in the agriculture and food industry, with a strong focus on Indian spices. He holds a M. Phil. in Economics and has worked extensively with both central and state government organizations on agricultural development initiatives. Mr. Landge specializes in streamlining business processes, cost control and enhancing operational efficiency without compromising quality or profitability.

At OV Impex, he plays a key role in overseeing procurement, packaging, and quality assurance, leveraging his deep industry knowledge and close collaboration with agricultural producers to ensure that every product meets the highest standards.
